

1st October, 2019

For the benefit of:

Mr. Adeyemi Gbenga Ezekiel

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as official confirmation that Mr. Gbenga Adeyemi was a Volunteer in good standing of the Grooming Leaders for Agriculture, an organization whose objectives are to building passionate agricultural entrepreneurs that will be ready to tackle challenges for the food future through research, development and empowerment programs

Mr. Gbenga Adeyemi participated in one of our programs: School Garden competition between the month of January and the month of June in the year 2019, came out with first position and received a merit award from our organization.

Volunteers are passionate young people who work under the "Youth Agrilead" program of the organisation and who are working toward realization of a world without hunger. You can view our work for more evidence through our website: www.glainitiative.org.

Thank you for your cooperation

Please contact us if you need further information.

Yours faithfully
