STATEMENT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES

The Non-Governmental Organizations Co-ordination Act requires the Directors of NGOs to prepare financial statements for each financial year that gives a true and fair view of the state of the organizations' as at the end of each financial year and of its operation results. It also requires them to ensure that the organization keeps proper accounting records that disclose, with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the organization. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the respective organization.

The Directors accept the responsibility for the annual financial statements, which have been prepared using appropriate accounting policies supported by reasonable and prudent judgments and estimates, in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the NGO Board Act.

The Directors are of the opinion that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the organization and of its operating results. The Directors further accepts responsibility for the maintenance of accounting records that may be relied upon in the preparation of financial statements, as well as adequate systems of internal financial control.

Nothing has come to the attention of the Directors to indicate that the organization will not remain a going concern for at least twelve months from the date of this statement.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS TO THE MEMBERS OF RILEY ORTON FOUNDATION

1. We have audited the accounts on page 5 to 7. We obtained all the information and explanations that to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit to provide reasonable basis for our opinion. The financial statements are in agreement with the books of accounts.

2. Respective Responsibility of Board of Trustees and Independent Auditors

Under the provisions of the NGOs Board, the Directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements which give a true and fair view of the organization's state of affairs and its operating results. Our responsibility is to express an independent opinion of the financial statements based on our audit and report our opinion to you.

3. Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards. These standards require that we plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable assurance that the accounts are free from material misstatements. An audit includes an examination, on a test basis, of evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the accounting policies and significant estimates made by the trustees, as well as an evaluation of the overall presentation of the financial statements.

4. Opinion

In our opinion, proper books of accounts have been kept and the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the organization as at 31 December, 2016 and results of its operation for the year ended and comply with International Financial Reporting Standards.

5. Report on Other Legal Requirements

As required by the NGOs Coordination Act, 1990, we report that based on our audit,

- i. We obtained all information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit.
- ii. In our opinion, proper books of accounts have been kept so far as it appears from examination of those books.
- iii. The financial statements are in agreement with the books of accounts.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below:

a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements are prepared in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards under the historical cost convention, and are presented in the functional currency, Kenya Shillings (Ksh).

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards requires the use of estimates and assumptions. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the accounting policies adopted by the organization. Although such estimates and assumptions are based on the directors' best knowledge of the information available, actual results may differ from those estimates .

b) Revenue recognition

Revenue represent the fair value of consideration received from donors and are stated at actual amount received.

c) Taxation

The organization is tax exempt under the Income Tax Act of Kenya.

d) Cash and cash equivalents

e) Comparatives

Comparative figures have been provided as required by International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)
